

Lecturers' Qualification

Qualification	Number
PhDs	14
PhD Candidates	9
Masters	19

Most of the lecturers are graduates from prominent universities in Asia, Australia, America and Europe.

Registration:

For BA programs, contact Studies Office

(Room 117)

Why should you choose the Faculty of Development Studies?

- All Lecturers are PhD and Master's degree holders.
- Curriculum include both theories and practices of historical and contemporary issues.
- Teaching approaches stress analytical skills and skills for life and work.
- Teaching and learning are strengthened by complementary special lectures
- and collaboration with various partners, such as :
 - Government agencies
 - Research institutes
 - Development partners
 - Civil society organizations
 - Embassies
 - Companies and enterprises
 - International universities

Royal University of Phnom Penh
Faculty of Development Studies

Department of Community Development

Department of Economic Development

Department of Natural Resource

Management and Development

Develop Yourself For the National Development

Contact:

Room 216A, Building A, Russian Blvd.

Khan Tuol Kork, Phnom Penh, Cambodia

Tel.: 092-791-070, 012-233-994

Email: fds.info@rupp.edu.kh

Website: <http://www.rupp.edu.kh/fds>

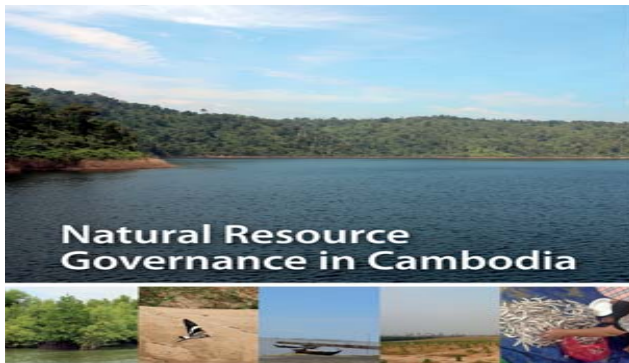

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/RUPP.FDS>

Department of Natural Resource Management and Development

Knowledge and Skills

- Basic theories for analyzing social issues
- Foundation and theories of natural resource management
- Education for sustainable development
- Theories of biodiversity conservation
- Theories of economic environment and natural resources
- Ability to manage and protect forest and wildlife
- Ability to assess environmental impacts
- Ability to analyze climate change and energy sustainability
- Ability to manage and protect terrace areas
- Development of positive attitude toward environment
- Ability to develop natural resource management schemes
- Ability to analyze social issues and suggest solutions

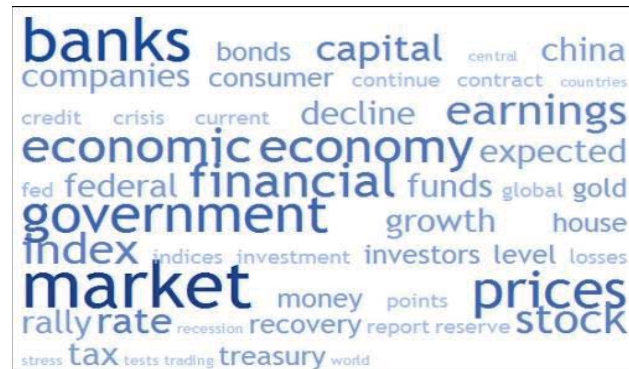

Develop for sustainability

Department of Economic Development

Knowledge and Skills

- Basic theories for analyzing social issues
- Foundation and theories of economic development
- Foundation of environmental and natural economics
- Ability to do economic analysis and assessment of investment and development projects
- Ability to research and analyze economic issues
- Ability to lead and develop enterprises
- Ability to develop economic development plans at sub-national and national levels
- Ability to analyze international, regional and national economic growth
- Ability to analyze options and policies for economic development
- Ability to monitor and evaluate economic conditions
- Ability to analyze social issues and suggest solutions

Develop knowledge for economic growth

Department of Community Development

Knowledge and Skills

- Basic theories for analyzing social issues
- Foundation and theories of community development
- Foundation of entrepreneurship and associations
- Foundation and theories of social change
- Ability to research and analyze community issues
- Ability to coordinate, manage and implement community development projects
- Ability to establish and manage communities
- Ability to monitor and evaluate development projects
- Ability to mobilize people for community development
- Ability to develop community development plans
- Ability to analyze social issues and suggest solutions

Establish communities for solidarity